Gee was reinstated by the mayor yesterday, and he went back to work yesterday, after having been suspended two days pending his trial in the hustings court on the charge of maliciously wounding Will Waugh, and upon which charge he was honorably acquitted on Monday night. ### Fourth Avenue Christian Church.

The services at the Fourth Avenue Christian Church last night were conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Goodwin. The show this year has been set for the first week in December so as to obtain good weather, and it is hoped that the show will meet with the patronage it deserves. The premium lists are now being printed, and those desiring one should address F. A. Lovelock, secretary.

tary, at Salem, at once, for entries close the last day of this month, and already coops have been ordered for several hundred exhibits. J. H. Drevenstedt, of Johnston, N. Y., editor of the American Fancier, has been engaged at considerable expense to judge the show by "score card," which alone should be a great inducement to exhibitors.

Proposed Labor Union.

A movement is on foot in this city to establish a central labor union, to be composed of representatives of the various crafts in this city. The purposes and aims of the proposed organization will be similar to those of the Federation of Labor, an organization now defunct, but which wielded considerable power and influence in its day. Those who are engineering the movement realize the necessity of concerted action in regard to many things bearing upon the welfare of the laboring men. Due notice will be given of the meeting, at which all workingmen who are interested will be heartily welcomed. The name of the assembly will probably be the South-west Central Labor Union.

Police Court.

At the Academy.

"The White Squadron," an intensely American drama, containing many thrilling situations, was given by an excellent company at the Academy last night to a very slim attendance. The play was beautifully staged, and no character was indifferently taken, the company in this respect showing a gratifying efficiency. M. L. Alsop, as Victor Herbert, the American naval commander, gave a most manly and commendable impersonation of the character. Frederick Julian, as General De Romacio, the Brazilian officer in league with brigandage, was also strongly effective. Edith Julian gave a sweet, womanly portrayal of the character of Therese De Romacio, the daughter of the traitorous general. Considered as a whole, it was an excellent performance, and deserved a much larger audience than it attracted.

Railroad Y. M. C. A.

The revival services at the department building in the West End are growing in interest daily. The subject of Mr. Rice's talk on Monday night was "Christ's Ability to Keep the Christian From Failing." Much interest was manifested in the words of God, which were addressed principally to Christians. A goodly number signified their desire to be used of God in winning souls. Last night's meeting was richly blessed of God. Mr. Rice used as a subject "Personal Responsibility." God's Spirit was given more abundantly than in preceding night in answer to earnest prayer and a deeper desire on the part of Christians to be used of God. The cornet was very helpful in arousing an interest in song. One hundred and ninety-nine persons were present. Still more souls will be added to-day. The subject for to night will be "Sin Finished." An invitation is extended to all to attend.

AMUSEMENTS.

Kate Claxton at the Academy Friday, November 15.

The theatre is a great civilizer, next to the press the greatest. The two naturally fraternize, each leaning somewhat toward the other. It is gratifying to have such performances in a community as are unexceptionable in quality and tone, unexcelled in point of merit, such as this city has been favored with many a time and oft, particularly will this be so in the coming engagement of the foremost of all our American actresses, Kate Claxton, presenting an elaborate revival of the famous "Two Orphans," with all the magnificent scenery and accessories, that created such a furor during the long run in New York.

Miss Claxton's appearance in this role has given her a reputation limited only by the bounds of civilization, or wherever the English tongue is spoken or understood. Manifestly it's an act of wisdom to bring us such an artiste, whom thousands of people who have never seen are anxious to see, and whom hundreds who have already seen more than once are desirous of seeing again. The habit of doing well whatever she attempts is remarkably strong in this most sagacious and thorough actress. Her genius pervades the entire theatre and she mounts plays in a fashion that practically commands attention irrespective of dramatic worth.

Marie Walwright.

Miss Marie Walwright, assisted by the best company she ever had, will be the star at the Academy of Music on next Saturday evening, November 16, in a gorgeously costumed revival of Sheridan Knowles' most famous comedy, "The Love Chase." Nathaniel Hartwig remains the leading man, while Barton Hill and Hattie Russell have been especially engaged for the parts of Sir William Fondlove and Widow Green. Miss Walwright has recently been most enthusiastically received in this play in New York city. The New York Times said: "Miss Walwright, always conscientious in her work, was never more so than last night. In appearance, in the display of cordial friendship for Neighbor Wildrake, the sportsman, and of scorn for the top he becomes under the spell of love for her, and in depicting the phases of love as her heart is affected by the apparent desertion of Wildrake for another, Miss Walwright was consistent always and always charming."

"Miss Walwright spoke an epilogue written by Julius Magnus, a dainty piece of advice to young and old on love-making, which, with a gavotte danced by the company, brought an enjoyable performance to a close."

Notice to the Public.

THE "KOSSUTH" brand of cigars now being offered by the leading druggists, grocers, tobacconists, restaurants and saloons of Roanoke, is acknowledged by all smokers to be without exception the leading 5c. article manufactured in the United States to-day. We as manufacturers carefully keep up the quality of them, and it has come to our notice that some dealers have sold other make of cigars through the "Kossuth" boxes, at a less rate than 5c. straight. The "Kossuth" cigar costs enough to attempt the dealer to sell at 10c., but as they do not pay as much for it as 10c. goods, a large trade is being drawn by selling them at 5c. straight. We give this notice in order to warn the lovers of this cigar to buy from reputable houses, such as we claim for our customers, now handling our goods in Roanoke, Va.

After Acute Bronchitis

CURED BY USING

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D., Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.
